Half Ways Beaten by Kamloops

KAMLOOPS (CP) — Kamloops Clothiers won the British Columbia men's senior "P" basketball championship when they downed Victoria Halfway House, 70-62, Saturday night, in the second game of a total-point series here.

They won the first game, 67-54, and the series, 137-116.

About 300 fans watched the fast well-played game as both teams displayed accurate shooting. Clothiers used an effective fast break which Victoria coach Joe Bryant said later beat his squad.

High man on the Kamloops scoring list was Len Fowles, with 26 points, followed by his brother Jack, with 14.

John Clark, with 25 points, was high man for Victoria, while Gordon Jones and Leroy Bond each tallied 12 points.

The lineups follow:

Victoria—Clarke 25, Dennison 6, G. Jones 12, Bond 12, Paterson 3, Bennett, Strank, Taylor 4. Total—62.

Kamloops—J. Fowles 14, Buchanan 7, Olson 12, J. Jones 5, L. Fowles 26, McKinnon 6, Glowacki, Lamb, Edwards. Total—70.

Unhappy Coincidence

Hung up until next winter are the skates of Mark Mockalis, 4, and his brother James, 12, both of whom suffered broken collar bones while skating at Manchester, Conn. Mark broke his on a Sunday, and James did the same thing just one week later.

Duncan Curlers Win Colonist Aggregate

COURTENAY — Lowell Berkey's Duncan rink captured the Colonist grand aggregate trophy in the Courtenay Valley Curling Club's first annual bonspiel Sunday.

They had to be good on the ice and lucky of it to take home the trophy. Berkey's rink, skipped by Glen Harper, finished in a first-place tie with Ray Dagg of Vancouver in the grand aggregate race with identical 7-1 records.

It was decided the trophy winner would be determined by the flip of a coin and fortune favored the Duncan quartet.

Dagg won the A primary, scoring a 12-2 victory over Larry Grams of Courtenay in the final. Jack Horning of New Westminster finished third and Bruce Marsden of Courtenay fourth.

TENSE FINAL

Berkey won the B primary by defeating John Jackel of Campbell River, 6-5, in a tense final. Horning also finished third in the B primary with Victoria's Bill McLean fourth.

Winner of the B secondary was Squib Thomson of Victoria, who defeated Larry Ormond of Campbell River, 10-4. Joe Marasco of Courtenay finished third and Frank Dingwall of Campbell River fourth.

Jim Tang of Victoria edged Larry Marshall, also of Victoria, 10-9, in 13 ends to take first place in the B secondary event. Tom Richardson of Campbell River was third and Larry Anderson of Parksville fourth.

Consolation round winner was Eric Smeaton of Victoria, who bested Don Sinclair of Courtenay, 10-2, in the final. Mel McClure of Courtenay finished third and Norm Baldwin of Port Alberni was fourth.

Wallaces Meet Caps In Finals

VANCOUVER (CP) — Vancouver Wallaces will meet Capilanos here next Friday in the province cup soccer playoffs.

Wallaces qualified for the berth Saturday by defeating Westminster Legion United 2-0 at Callister Park. Capilanos beat Victoria Gorge Hotel, 3-1.

Jim Blundell and Roy Nosella scored Vancouver's goals.

Wallaces' first goal, a well-placed shot into the corner of the net from 25 yards out, came from inside-right Blundell midway through the second-half. Nosella scored the second goal with two minutes left in the game after Westminster had thrown every man into the attack, leaving goalie Merv Scheitzer alone in his half of the field.

'Sexless' Trout Just Gets Fat

TOKYO (UPI) — Prof. Tokyo Yamamoto of Nagoya University has developed a breed of "sexless" rainbow trout through the use of hormones.

Instead of expending energy pursuing the opposite sex, the sexless trout just grows indolent and fat and thus is of greater commercial value.

Bantam Title Bout Delayed to June 3

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Matchmaker George Parnassus said Monday the bantamweight championship fight between Alphonse Halimi of Paris and Joe Becerra of Mexico City has been set back from May 6 to June 3.

The change was made because the earlier date would conflict with a Los Angeles Dodgers baseball game. June 3 was the first suitable date on which Wrigley Field here will be available, Parnassus said.

Tin Miners Don't Get Pimples

Because Cornish tin miners appeared to avoid skin blemishes, British chemists suggested the use of tin in treating Boils, Acne, Pimples.

Now convenient, tasteless tablets containing 43.5% metallic tin are available under the brand name "Tinoxid". Rapid, satisfactory results are claimed for this inexpensive treatment.

Tinoxid Tablets are sold without prescription at all drug stores, $1.00.

Cummings Rink Wins

PORT ALBERNI—Bob Cummings of Port Alberni won the Alberni Valley curling championship Sunday, defeating Jules Wenezenki, also of Port Alberni, 9-2 in the final.

Curling with Cummings were Barry Meyer, second; Eddie McAskill, third, and Tony Souchuk, lead.

Bob Reed won the A event, Frank Hunt the B event and Jim Sled the C event in the bonspiel that was held in conjunction with the championships.

Sixteen rinks competed in the bonspiel and championship play.

Orioles Taste Rare Treat By Beating Yankees Twice

Baltimore Orioles enjoyed a rare accomplishment Sunday when they swept a doubleheader from the New York Yankees, but the Yankees made it a short-lived celebration by blanking the Orioles, 5-0, on just six hits yesterday.

Milt Pappas, a promising 18-year-old, pitched six of the seven scoreless innings as the Orioles took the nightcap 4-0 Sunday after Jerry Walker and Jack Fisher, a pair of 20-year-olds, scattered nine hits for a 6-3 Baltimore victory in the opener.

Yesterday, however, it was a different situation. New York starter Tom Sturdivant pitched five scoreless innings and was credited with the win. George Bamberger, who pitched for the Vancouver Mounties last year, started for Baltimore and was charged with the loss. He pitched five innings and gave up two runs.

Meanwhile, Willie Mays, out of action since March 12 with a leg injury, returned to action Sunday and predicted he'll be in shape before the regular season starts.

Bill Rigney, manager of the San Francisco Giants, injured in a car accident last month, was also back in uniform Sunday.

Veteran Cleveland right-hander Mike Garcia, attempting a comeback at 35, suffered a badly bruised knee when hit by a line drive off the bat of Boston's Billy Consolo. He was taken to hospital.

Sue Butt Captures Indoor Tennis Meet

VANCOUVER (CP) — Paul Willey scored an easy 6-2, 6-3 win over Larry Barclay Sunday in the windup of the inaugural British Columbia indoor invitational tennis championships.

The final day's play in the four-day meet provided no upsets.

Sue Butt of Victoria scored a 6-1, 6-0 win over Hedy Rutzbeck in the women's singles. In the men's doubles, Willey and Reider Getz of Victoria teamed up to defeat Barclay and Jack Reader, 7-5, 9-7.

Natalie Hatch and Bev Danby defeated Norman Fyfe and Lynda Philip 6-4, 6-4 in the womens' doubles.

In the junior veterans' doubles, Ed Kemble and Derek Leader defeated Ted Clarke and Jack Ritchie, 3-6, 6-1, 6-4.

Synchronized City Splashers Take Second

VANCOUVER — Edmonton Aquadettes won the B.C. synchronized swimming title Saturday at the 11th annual women's swimming championships.

The defending champion Victoria YMCA Aquanymphs finished second and Vancouver Synchronettes placed third. It was the first time teams from outside British Columbia have competed in the meet.

Members of the Victoria team, coached by Rita Norbury were Pat Johnson, Lois Howes, Marlita Neil, Jean Johnson, Jean Hagle and Gaye Culpepper.
